6. Coach introduction and report
John Sung, Head Women’s Lacrosse Coach
• One of the things I have done in my career is build programs.
• Looking forward to restructuring and rebuilding this program.
• Competed in five games this fall -- the team did not lose a game.
• Working on recruiting to catch up with the other ACC schools. The ACC is a very strong conference with several top NCAA teams.

Questions/Comments:
What has been your biggest surprise at Virginia Tech?
Genuine care of the people that I have met. "How are you doing, how is your family?" Not just "how is the program?"
How many players are on a lacrosse team?
High 20’s-mid 30’s. I want to carry about 38.
How many scholarships do you have?
We have 12 scholarships, which are divided roughly three per class. For each class we aim to give a 60-70% scholarship to one blue-chip recruit, 50% to two recruits, 20% to four recruits.
Where are you recruiting from, and what is your biggest obstacle?
The current team was built with a lot from upstate New York, but not many from Maryland or Virginia, which are both strong in lacrosse. We are going to focus on the best clubs in Virginia and Maryland.
