COMMISSION ON EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND DIVERSITY (2008-2009) (32 Members)

Eight faculty or staff community representatives (three-year term)

(Community representatives shall be chosen by one of two methods. Where there is a widely representative single organization for faculty and staff, this organization would have responsibility for electing a representative. Where there is no appropriate organization (or multiple organizations), then a related office/program/ or center serving related interests will be responsible for the nomination and election (or selection) of a community representative. The Office of Multicultural Affairs will be responsible for overseeing the identification of community representatives, including assuring that named organizations, programs, or offices use an open process for securing nominations and interested participants if an election is not feasible or reasonable.)

1. Representatives elected by a university organization with open membership for faculty and staff (one each):
  - a. Black Caucus
  - b. Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual Staff/Faculty Caucus
